

Training: Scheduling & Runcutting for bus

This training is designed for schedulers, operations and finance managers as well as for union representatives wishing to supervise or acquire knowledge of fixed-route scheduling.

The objective of the course is to provide robust understanding of the terminology, processes and issues related to timetabling, vehicle blocking, runcutting, and rostering. In addition, the course represents an opportunity to exercise with other professionals of the public transit industry.

Course Syllabus :

- Organizational Structure or Transit – Overview
- Service Development – Overview
- Scheduling Process
- Vehicle Scheduling
- Complex Vehicle Schedules: Short-turns and Branching
- Running Time and Min. Layover Calibration Overview
- Crew Scheduling
- Rostering and Headcount Estimates (North America)
- Scheduling Efficiency

Information

- Duration: 5 days of training, for a total of approximately 40 hours.
- Dates: December 3rd to 7th 2018
- Location: Metro Transit Office, Minneapolis
560 Sixth Avenue North
Minneapolis, MN 55411
- Costs: $ 2,200 USD per participant
- Includes 5 lunches
- A $ 250 fee will be charged in case of cancellation.